

Evangelist & Mrs. David Charles Spurgeon

For we are labourers together with God... I Cor 3:9

August 2024

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Cor 15:58

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. With the way things are going in the world these days, especially in the Middle East, surely the Lord will be back soon. That's a good thing for me, and for you if you are saved, but I'm confident we all know people that won't be a good thing for. That means it's more important than ever to get our attention back on things that are important to God and off all the smoke screens the god of this world continually produces.

Several weeks at home in June were most enjoyable. I was able to attend to some medical needs, which were minor, praise the Lord. We got to spend some quality time with our kids and grandkids. Thank you for your prayers for our youngest granddaughter, Lillian. She turned two in May and is doing fine. Lillian is about to get a baby brother in October! He'll be grandchild number thirteen! I couldn't talk Evay into having twins so we could skip right to fourteen, so we'll pray he's the exception to the rule!

We very much enjoyed being at our home church, Anchor Baptist, again. If we've learned anything from twenty-five plus years on the road, it's the value of a home church family to which to come home. I've seen evangelists attach their membership to churches far from their actual residence, but that never quite made sense to me. When we are not on the road, I believe it is important for us to be in a solid local church environment. Maybe that's just me.

In Luke 18:1 The Lord Jesus said, "that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;" Recently, in a restaurant in upstate New York, a man and woman approached our table as they were leaving. The man had noticed we prayed over our food and were talking about the Sunday morning service we'd just come from. It was the last day of our revival meeting Three folks prayed and asked Jesus Christ to forgive them of their sins and save their souls, which we were very excited about! The guy who came to our table said he was a Christian from Vermont. While we talked I handed him a Gospel tract and the pastor invited him to the final service that evening. When Susan and I walked in at 5:45, they were there! The lady was an employee of his who hadn't been to church in over forty-years. She had read the tract and told her boss wanted to come to church. The Lord had given me the perfect message for the occasion and Laurie, 51, was gloriously born again! Talk about a grand finale!

Thank you for your prayers and support. Your sacrifice is greatly appreciated, and not taken for granted.

David and Susan Spurgeon
I Corinthians 15:58

*Looking for that Blessed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God
And our Saviour Jesus Christ...*