For we are labourers together with God: I Cor 3:9

January 2021

Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Titus 2:13

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in the name of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Someone pointed out recently that the last two verses of the King James Bible, Revelation 22:20-21, have to do with:

- 1] the Lord coming back soon,
- 2] our having the grace to believe it, wait for it, and look for it.

As we head into 2021, the anticipation of that hour far surpasses the contemplation of any other event, past, present, or future. I.O.W's, though the world's coming apart, we'll soon be going up!

Once again, the Lord has allowed circumstances to transpire that have worked to remind Christians that this world is not our home. Thank God for the reminder. The sin of Laodicea is self-reliance, and the Lord has of a way of letting us know we have far less control of our lives than we think. My prayer is that many professing Christians, who have been lulled to sleep by the comfort and casualness of the age, will awake to righteousness.

2020 also rattled the complacency of many who invested their confidence in the things of this world, and caused some to question their beliefs, and/or lack of them. That's a very good thing! Between June and October, we saw over a dozen professions of faith in Christ! All of them, except for two, were in response to Gospel preaching at a church service. Seems like God knows that when He shakes things up a bit, it gets people thinking about more important matters than vacations, and promotions, and elections, etc.

Susan and I have been home in Ohio since Thanksgiving, preaching locally, enjoying our grandchildren, and our local church family. We are doing well health-wise and we thank you for your prayers to that end. I turned thirty-years-old in the Lord a month ago and continually marvel at His Grace.

We are scheduled to hit the road again next week, and are looking at a full schedule for 2021, notwithstanding any more unforeseen cancellations. No matter what happens, I am glad to be saved. Paul said, "...so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." Lord willing, we plan to stay on course, and finish with joy for the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Please say a prayer concerning my petition for a Presidential Pardon when it comes to mind. It isn't over until it's over. Thank you for your prayers and support. We appreciate both very much.

Awaiting the Shout!
