Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in the name of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. We used to say, "Time flies when you're having fun." Now it's more like, "Time flies whether you are having fun or not!" As we wrap up 2014 in the Carolinas on our way north, I realize it's time for an update for those of you who support us financially, prayerfully, or both. Thank you.

With mixed emotions, I report that one of my best friends went home to be with his Saviour last month. Pastor Pete McKenzie of Bible Baptist Church, Las Vegas, Nevada, finished his course on October 11th, and he is sorely missed. Proverbs 27:17 says, "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." I am a better Christian because the Lord let our paths cross. Please pray for his precious wife, family, and for Bible Baptist Church as they endeavor to continue to "fight the good fight."

It has been a great and fruitful summer for us. We have been in some exciting meetings where the Lord moved freely in hearts and we've seen some souls saved. Our equipment is holding together for the most part, and the Lord has supplied either the men, the money, or both, to help with the problems we have had. We were once again able to make our home church's annual camp meeting. There is no doubt in my mind it was the best one ever! Then again, I liked them all. My wife and I just like being in church.

I am currently preaching a meeting in Beaufort, South Carolina while wearing a walking cast, hobbling up to the pulpit with a cane, which I don't seem to be coordinated enough to operate very well. I did "something" to a ligament in my right foot at the baggage claim in the Orlando airport a few days ago. That official diagnosis cost me $488.00, which just added insult to injury. I had just flown in from a great meeting in Boise, Idaho, where a twenty-four year old man got saved Sunday morning and a seventy-three year old man got saved Sunday night.

Efforts to get copies of my book into prisons has gone very well. Almost five hundred have been distributed in penitentiaries and county jails in Texas, California, Florida, Ohio, Maine, Washington D.C., and New York. If you are interested in obtaining some not-for-resale prison editions, contact me via email at dcspurgeon@reagan.com.

The re-release of Bikin' and Brotherhood: My Journey by Thomas Nelson Publishers is available in electronic format at Amazon.com, and in conventional book form at Bible Baptist Bookstore, Barnes & Nobles, Amazon, and for an autographed copy, at davidspurgeon.org. Please pray also for the completion of the sequel, Sentenced to Preach.

I continue to marvel at God's grace as we wait for His coming. Thank you for your prayers.
